1) The SEND Department

A pupil has SEND if they have a learning difficulty or disability that requires special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools.

Disability

Pupils are considered to have a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to do normal daily activities. The school will make reasonable adjustments for pupils with disabilities, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers.

The Portsmouth Academy has a designated Special Needs and Disability Co-Ordinator (SENDCo) who has completed the National Award for SEN Qualification (NaSENCO) in 2019. The Aspiring SENDCo is currently completing the National Professional Qualification for SENCOs.

3) The Portsmouth Academy SEND aims

To create a community of learners that successfully access education through opportunities in and out of the classroom. To equip our learners with skills to transform life chances. All teachers are teachers of SEND and will implement the strategies from their pupils' learning plan and adapt their lesson plans in order for the child to achieve and make the most of their learning opportunities, in line with the TSAT value of Be Your Best Self. All teachers and leaders to use the TPA top 5 strategies of explicit instructions, cognitive and metacognition strategies, scaffolding, flexible groups and using technology.

The Portsmouth Academy SEND objectives:

- To identify students' special educational needs and to put appropriate support in place
- To ensure that staff have the knowledge, understanding and skills to provide the right support for students who have Special Education Needs or are disabled (SEND)
- To monitor and review students' progress regularly
- To provide a caring and supportive environment for students where they are encouraged to speak to a member of the team if they are experiencing problems.

4) Identifying Special Educational Needs

The needs of pupils with SEND are grouped into 4 broad areas. Pupils can have needs that cut across more than 1 area, and their needs may change over time. They are:

- Communication and Interaction
- Cognition and Learning
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health
- Sensory and/or physical

Interventions will be selected that are appropriate for the pupil's particular area(s) of need, at the relevant time.

The Portsmouth Academy will place those additional to or different from provision will be referred to as having SEND status, as outlined in the SEN Code of Practice (2014)

Other issues which may impact on progress and attainment but are not SEND include:

- Attendance and Punctuality
- Health and Welfare
- English as an Additional Language (EAL)
- Being in receipt of Pupil Premium (PP) Grant
- Being a Looked After Child
- Being a child of Serviceman/woman
- Persistently disruptive or withdrawn behaviours

At The Portsmouth Academy all teachers are responsible for:

- Planning and providing high-quality teaching that is differentiated to meet pupil needs through a graduated approach, using the TPA top 5 – explicit instruction, cognitive and metacognitive strategies, scaffolding, flexible grouping and using technology
- The progress and development of every pupil in their class
- Read and implement SEND students individual support plans, annual reviews and Education, Health and Care plans.
- Working closely with any Student Engagement Workers (SEWs) to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions, and consider how they can be linked to classroom teaching
- Working with the SENCO to review each pupil's progress and development, and decide on any changes to provision on individual support plans
- Ensuring they follow this SEND policy and the SEN information report

At The Portsmouth Academy all staff can raise concerns about students having SEND. This is a central document which is reviewed by the SEND team. The member of staff making the referral is expected to have a conversation with the parent or guardian to ensure they are aware of the concerns. When deciding whether the pupil needs special educational provision, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. The Portsmouth Academy will use the Portsmouth Profile of Need document to determine if the child hits the city-wide threshold for SEN support, we will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

If a pupil is joining the school, and:

- Their previous setting has already identified that they have SEN
- They are known to external agencies
- They have an education, health and care plan (EHCP)

then the school will work in a multi-agency way to make sure we get relevant information before the pupil starts at school, so support can be put in place as early as possible.

5) A graduated approach to SEND support

Underpinning all our provision in school is the graduated approach cycle. All teachers are responsible for every child in their care, including those with special educational needs

Assess: – we take into consideration all the information gathered from our assessments, observations and discussions with parents or carers.

Plan: – we identify the barriers to learning, intended outcomes, and details what additional support will be provided to help overcome the barriers.

Do: Class teacher / teaching assistants will carry out support set in the Learning Plans and annotate the plans with progress made.

Review: – we measure the impact of the support that has been provided and consider whether changes need to be made. All those involved contribute to these discussions. This stage informs the next cycle, if necessary. Having consulted with children, young people and their parents, all our additional provision (internal or external) is based on an agreed outcomes approach.

The types of SEND that are provided for

The needs of pupils with SEND are grouped into 4 broad areas. Pupils can have needs that cut across more than 1 area, and their needs may change over time.

Interventions will be selected that are appropriate for the pupil's particular area(s) of need, at the relevant time.

AREA OF NEED
---------------------	--

Communication and interaction	Pupils with needs in this area have difficulty communicating with others. They may have difficulty understanding what is being said to them, have trouble expressing themselves, or do not understand or use the social rules of communication. Pupils who are on the autism spectrum (ASC) often have needs that fall in this category.
Cognition and learning	Pupils with learning difficulties usually learn at a slower pace than their peers. A wide range of needs are grouped in this area, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Specific learning difficulties, which impact 1 or more specific aspects of learning, such as: dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia • Moderate learning difficulties • Severe learning difficulties • Profound and multiple learning difficulties, which is where pupils are likely to have severe and complex learning difficulties as well as a physical disability or sensory impairment
Social, emotional and mental health	These needs may reflect a wide range of underlying difficulties or disorders. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental health difficulties such as anxiety, depression or an eating disorder • Attention deficit disorder (ADD), attention deficit hyperactive disorder (ADHD) or attachment disorder • Suffered adverse childhood experiences (ACE's) These needs can manifest in many ways, for example as challenging, disruptive or disturbing behaviour, or by the pupil becoming withdrawn or isolated.

Sensory and/or physical	Pupils with these needs have a disability that hinders them from accessing the educational facilities generally provided. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A sensory impairment such as vision impairment, hearing impairment or multi-sensory impairment • A physical impairment These pupils may need ongoing additional support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers.
---------------------------------------	--

When teachers identify an area where a pupil is making slow progress, they will target the pupil's area of weakness with differentiated, high-quality teaching, using the TPA top 5. If progress does not improve, the teacher will raise the issue with the SENCO to have an initial discussion about whether this lack of progress may be due to a special educational need. Where necessary they will, in consultation with the pupil's parents or carers, consider consulting an external specialist.

Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN.

Potential short-term causes of impact on behaviour or performance will be considered, such as bullying or bereavement. Staff will also take particular care in identifying and assessing SEN for pupils whose first language is not English.

When deciding whether the pupil needs special educational provision, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. The Portsmouth Academy will use the Portsmouth Profile of Need document to determine if the child hits the city-wide threshold for SEN support, we will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

If a pupil is joining the school, and:

- Their previous setting has already identified that they have SEN
- They are known to external agencies
- They have an education, health and care plan (EHCP)

then the school will work in a multi-agency way to make sure we get relevant information before the pupil starts at school, so support can be put in place as early as possible.

Levels of support

School-based SEN provision

Pupils receiving SEN provision will be placed on the school's SEND register. These pupils have needs that can be met by the school through the graduated approach. Pupils will have an individual support plan on Provision Map that will include strategies from the TPA Top 5. Where the pupil's needs cannot be adequately met with in-house expertise, staff will consider involving an external specialist as soon as possible as well as creating a SEN support Plan, using the Portsmouth Profile of Need document.

The provision for these pupils is funded through the school's notional SEND budget and on the census these pupils will be marked with the code K.

Education, health and care (EHC) plan

Pupils who need more support than is available through the school's school-based SEN provision may be entitled to an EHC plan. The plan is a legal document that describes the needs of the pupil, the provision that will be put in place, and the outcomes sought.

The provision for these pupils will be funded from the school's notional SEND budget, and potentially from the Local Authority (LA) based on the Summary of Provision the LA issue alongside the EHC plan.

On the census these pupils will be marked with the code E.

6) Criteria for exiting the SEND register

If students SEND needs no longer need additional to or different from support to make progress at The Portsmouth Academy, they will come off the SEND register. The SEND register is reviewed termly by the SENCo, and parents will be informed.

If the student is removed from the SEND register, this will be reflected on the schools' systems, however all plans and reports will remain on Provision Map but will no longer be reviewed.

7) Supporting students and families

Parents can view the Portsmouth Local Offer website to see what services are available to support them.

If students with special educational needs require access arrangements to allow them to access examinations and assessments, these arrangements are put in place by the examinations officer under the instruction and guidance of the SENCo. The school is bound by the rules and restrictions of the examinations board and specific criteria must be met to allow any access arrangements to be facilitated. If parents wish to discuss any exam access arrangements, they must speak to the SENCo in the first instance.

The SEND team have a good transition phase in place for the transition to Year 7; Primary school SENCOs and Year 6 teachers and a phased induction if necessary, in the Summer Term. The Inclusion Centre holds their transition day on a separate day.

8) Monitoring and evaluation of SEND

We are constantly looking for ways to improve our SEND policy. We will evaluate how effective our SEND provision is with regards to:

- Ensuring provision map is up to date
- Review how pupils are identified as having SEND, using the city-wide Profile of Need.
- Whether pupils with SEND feel safe, valued and included in the school community
- Comments and feedback from staff, pupils and their parents

9) Training and resources

Training will regularly be provided to teaching and support staff. The Principal, Quality of Education Team SENDCO will monitor to identify any staff who have specific training needs and will incorporate this into the school's plan for continuous professional development.

10) Storing and managing information

The Portsmouth Academy recognises the importance of appropriately managing and storing students' documentation. Confidential documentation received at school is forwarded to the SEN team who store it in a locked filing cabinet. Electronic records are recorded on Provision Maps.

11) Links with external professional agencies

The school recognises that it won't be able to meet all the needs of every pupil with SEND. We work with the following agencies:

- Portsmouth's Inclusion Outreach Service
- Educational psychologists
- Occupational therapists
- Speech and language therapists
- Physiotherapists
- Hearing and Vision impairment service
- Child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS) ,

12) Reviewing the policy

13) Dealing with complaints

Complaints about SEND provision in our school should be made in line with on complaints procedure, which can be found on our school website. The parents of pupils with disabilities have the right to make disability discrimination claims to the first-tier SEND tribunal if they believe that our school has discriminated against their children.

They can make a claim about alleged discrimination regarding:

- Exclusions
- Provision of education and associated services
- Making reasonable adjustments, including the provision of auxiliary aids and services
